

Dennis Payne

7 South Union St.
Milford, MA 01757
(508) 473-1808

<http://www.identicalsoftware.com/dulsi/>

dulsi@identicalsoftware.com

Objective

Seeking employment in designing and programming computer games.

Experience

Softscape, Inc., Wayland, MA

Senior Software Designer, May 1998 - Present

- Responsible for core components for enterprise-wide event management system including web interface, SOAP integration, batch processing and CORBA communication
- Key developer in Cognos integration and UNIX port
- Developed the multi-language support and translation infrastructure

Shifting Suns Studios

Programmer, December 2000 – December 2004

- Implemented Devil Whiskey's inventory and equipment and replaced the save game system

Computer Science Department, RPI Troy, NY

Computer Science Teaching Assistant, September 1997 - May 1998

Parametric Technology Corporation, Waltham, MA

Tester, January 1997 - August 1997

- Developed demonstration programs for Pro/INTRALINK Toolkit and Pro/WebLink
- Tested Pro/INTRALINK Toolkit and Pro/WebLink for bugs and inconsistencies
- Helped as lab assistant in beta customer training and documented unclear areas of the toolkits

Education

B.S., Computer Science, May 1998

Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute

Projects

Color Monsters (independent project)

- Java applet and application that combines a coloring book and a Pokemon-like game

Skills

Programming Languages: C, C++, Java, LISP, Pascal, ML, Scheme, some knowledge of Assembly and ADA