Suggestion Spell Fetish

This small lyre does not make music. Instead, when you meditate upon it, you can memorize the 3rd level spell suggestion. You obtained this from Abu the Lackey in a fierce trading session.

Obtained in trade with Abu the Lackey.

Gold Disk Necklace

This item is very rare and wondrous. It came from the stars, so you were told by Abu, that most honest of traders. It is a small golden disk, carved with a picture of a rather gaunt tam'hi. A small leather strap runs through a hole in the disk, so that all may see your treasure.

Ritual Body Paints

This set of three small gourds contains inks suitable for marking face or body. It can be used just on the face, as for war, or to draw ritual designs before a ceremony. The gourds contain red, yellow, and white paints. It does not wash off in water but does wear off over the course of a week or so. The inks are concentrated. There is enough in the three gourds for six uses.

Drinking Horn

This fine drinking horn was made from the horn of a wildebeest. It has several carvings of nubari and shu hunting antelope and garuda. It looks like it is old, perhaps as old as your grandfather. You traded several prized possessions to get it from Abu the Lackey. You did get him to throw in a skin of Koshiva date wine and a pouch of macadamia nuts. Mark off the food items when used.
